

I am strongly opposed to any change that would weaken Wisconsin's No-Call list. If anything, it should be expanded to include political and fund-raising calls. I have never responded to any phone solicitation yet. And I NEVER will. Why don't you people get it? We DO Not want to be annoyed. What is it about NO that you do not understand?